

Denver Colorado 1993

this is the story of a boy named Mike Teavee who is a fan of cartoons and television and he is also a fan of a very special cartoon character and it is Roger Rabbit his favorite cartoon character and also this boy is the last fan of this animated character left in the world and even this character will change his life in the future but he just didn't know it yet (Mike is watching Roger Rabbit cartoons on TV)

Mike's mother: Mike it's time to sleep go to your bed

Mike: ok mom (turns off the TV and goes to his bed)

Mike: mom I know what I want to be when I grow up I want to be an animator and create cartoons and work at Maroon Cartoons the Roger Rabbit animation studio

Mike's mother: oh it sounds wonderful but I have something to tell you and that is that unfortunately that animation studio closed a few years ago I don't think you'll be able to work and also although you are a fan of Roger Rabbit but many children today are not interested in that old cartoon many already prefer more to the action superhero series or those Japanese series called anime that are very fashionable these days

Mike: Well my dream is that when I grow up I will reopen that old studio and I will make new Roger Rabbit shorts and also create my own cartoons of my characters that I made myself

Mike's mother: Let's hope that maybe it happens and your dream comes true and good night (turns off the light)

Mike: someday I will do it someday

And many will be wondering what happened to the maroon cartoons studio or to Roger Rabbit well it's time to go to Los Angeles California in 1949 and this is where they talk about what happened to maroon cartoons studios after RK maroon left this world and that now his brother CB maroon is in charge of his deceased brother's work and also what happened the closure of the Raoul j. studio. Raoul: Hey Mr. Maroon, I have this script for a new Roger short that could save the company.

CB Maroon: Let me see, let's see Roger Rabbit in Clean and Oppressed. I think it will work.

Raoul J. Raoul: And if Roger screws up this time, well, it turns out some Disney executives are interested in using Roger Rabbit in their movies.

CB Maroon: But I don't trust Disney much, they are very Raoul J. Raoul: Calm down boss, if Roger doesn't follow the rules of the script or if something goes wrong, then I'll send Roger to be hired by Disney and work there for the rest of his life.

CB Maroon: But Raoul, that's not what I wanted. What I wanted to say is that I don't want to fire

Roger. He is the studio's official mascot and to me he is like a nephew of mine because he is the creation of my brother RK Maroon and without Roger the company will close, the animation studio
Raoul j. Raoul: yes I understand but it's my job

Raoul j. Raoul: hey Roger do you want to work on a new short here the script

Roger: that's great a new short I'm going to make Raoul

Raoul j. Raoul: okay but if you do something wrong you'll be fired

Roger: ppp please

Raoul j. Raoul: but also after you say goodbye you will be hired by Disney

Roger: how good is that studio my idol goofy works there I always wanted to meet him in person

Raoul j. Raoul: well you'll meet him if you make a mistake or if you ruin something

Roger: ok deal

Raoul j. Raoul: ok lights cameras and action

(The Roger Rabbit short film called Clean and Oppressed begins)

Roger is shown walking and entering the laundry room with a large bag of clothes

Roger: it's time to take all these dirty clothes to wash (he takes some red pants, yellow gloves, and blue bows out of the bag and takes out some detergents and soaps, puts them in the washing machine and presses it for about 5 minutes and a soft and slow wash, but a small bee appears and lands on the washing machine button soft and slow but presses the button activating the fast wash at light years speed and makes the washing machine start moving fast and crazy and the bee gets scared and leaves)

Roger: Hey, that's weird, the washing machine is a bit strange, I'm going to see if something is okay (he opens the washing machine door and a lot of water comes out and all the clothes and Roger is wet and with his pants full of water and the washing machine door closes and leaves Roger locked in and spinning fast without stopping until it explodes and a tsunami of water comes out flooding the set recording)

Raoul j. Raoul: cut cut Roger!!!

Roger: Raoul help aaaaahhhh

Raoul j. Raoul: what did I tell you not to ruin the short this time I'm fed up I think now you're going to work with Disney

Roger: oh good

Raoul j. Raoul: yes I know but if you go with Disney you will make Maroon Cartoons close forever and you will never see your friends, baby Herman, or your girlfriend Jessica again

Roger: wait not pp please

Raoul j. Raoul: take your suitcases full of your things and have a good time with Disney and Mickey Mouse

(Disney employees appear taking Roger to a limo and they leave)

Roger: I can't believe what just happened

Raoul j. Raoul: see you later rabbit

Roger: But Raoul noooooo

Raoul j. Raoul: finally I'm free from this job and from that stupid rabbit

CB Maroon: hey have you seen roger I can't find him

Raoul j. Raoul: oh well he did his job wrong and his first day of work is going to be with walt disney

CB Maroon: what did you do with roger

Raoul j. Raoul: well I already did it so I wouldn't work with you and that annoying rabbit I always hated you and I quit goodbye

CB Maroon: It can't be, I'll lose my job without Roger (CB Maroon looks up to the sky) I'm sorry, brother, even though you're not here, I've failed. I knew I was bad at this and it was a bad idea to take the throne of your work and maintain the legacy of your favorite rabbit and everything was ruined because of me and Raoul J. Raoul I'm sorry my dear brother

(The limousine is shown arriving at the Walt Disney studios and Mickey Mouse is seen outside the studio)

Mickey: Hello, I am Mickey Mouse you are a fan of my friend Goofy

Roger: Hey yes, I am his number 1 fan

Mickey: Today is your lucky day you are going to work with him and with me just sign this contract

Roger: Ok there

Mickey: And now come with me please we are going to record a new movie of us (Mickey Mouse and Roger go to the recording set)

Roger: Ok I'm going and what do I do

Mickey: Well you have to do a simple rule it is just do nothing and do not interact with us

Roger: Wait, am I not the protagonist

Mickey: No, you will be an extra or rather a secondary character in our movies and nothing more and also we have some special rules for you and it is not to interact with Disney stars like me or Donald Duck or your idol Goofy and some important ones that are that you cannot resign or retire from your job and we cannot fire you from our job because now you are already property of Walt Disney do you understand

Roger: oh i understand

Mickey: ok just do some random things and don't interact with us ok let's continue

Disney employee: lights cameras action

(Roger watching a fruit stand very far from Mickey and his friends)

(Then scenes from Mickey's shorts and animated films are shown and they are always the ones who have the most screen time and Roger in small cameos or just as a filling secondary character)

Mickey: hey Goofy, Donald come on the Academy Awards are waiting for us

Roger: can I go with you

Mickey: no you Roger you weren't invited only the 3 of us were invited to that Academy bye

Roger: aw but I wanted to be with you

(A day later Mickey is shown returning to the quiet studio and we see Roger packing his bags)

Mickey: hey what are you doing

Roger: well I'm fed up with you and your rules I wanted to meet Goofy in person but you gave me some rules that make it impossible for me to meet him in person and only me you gave me the role of a secondary character and I don't like it and I'm leaving

Mickey: Hey, didn't you forget something? There's a rule that you can't resign and retire and also I can't fire you from your job because you're mine and it's an order that you return to work now

Roger: I'm not going to follow your orders, you're not like RK Maroon

Mickey: although he is no longer in this world because now I am your new boss and I order you to do your job

Roger: I already told you no

Mickey: I told you yes

Roger: no

Mickey: yes

Roger: no

Mickey: yes Roger:

no Mickey: yes

Roger: no

Mickey: yes Roger: yes

Mickey: no

Roger: haha you said yes goodbye until next time dirty rodent (and runs away)

Mickey: wait for the guards to catch him before he gets too far away or goes to another animation studio

(Guards appear and Roger turns back and screams when he sees that the Disney guards are chasing him and Roger runs faster and looks for where to hide and enters through a window and hides and it was a window of the old Maroon Cartoons studio closed and abandoned and Roger hidden inside a wall and the guards don't see him)

Roger: phew it was close ahhhh (he falls and gets stuck inside a safe)

(The Disney guards return to the studio)

Guard: we couldn't find him Mickey

Mickey: oh cmon and if you find him I want him here in my studio and never leave again please understand guys

Studio guards: okay Mickey

Mickey: and if you don't find him it's better to forget about Roger Rabbit understood and say that he has died

Studio guards: understood

(The next day a woman arrives at the Disney studio)

Jessica: hey Mickey I want to talk to you

Mickey: yes ma'am what's your name

Jessica: I am Roger Rabbit's wife and oh that you hired him and explain to me what happened to my dear Roger

Mickey: well he wanted to quit and he escaped and I called Eddie Valiant and he found no clues to Roger's whereabouts

Jessica: I can't live long without my husband Roger I miss him and I'm leaving if you don't find him yet

Mickey: wow I can't believe that a fan of my friend Goofy disappears without a trace I think I'd better forget about Roger and continue with my movies

(The Maroon Cartoons studio building is shown still abandoned and then some men put up a sign that says in (sale)

76 years later Los Angeles California 2025

A bus arrives and a person gets off and it's Mike Teavee but an adult and he sees the abandoned Maroon Cartoons studio building with a for sale sign and a phone number that says 555 022 688

Mike: I knew this day was coming, he takes out (his cell phone and calls the number)

ML Maroon: Hi, I'm CB Maroon's granddaughter speaking

Mike: Good morning, this is a Roger Rabbit fan who comes here to buy his grandfather's old animation studio to revive his old job

ML Maroon: Oh, I'm going over there

(Mike waiting for ML Maroon)

ML Maroon: sorry for the delay but I already came you are that Roger Rabbit fan who wants to buy my grandparents' studio the Maroon brothers

Mike: yes my dream is to be an animator and I always wanted to have my own animation studio and seeing this abandoned studio it needs a remodeling and also being the new owner of this studio I will change the name from Maroon Cartoons to Mike Teavee Studios and the Maroon Cartoons cartoons will now be called Teavee Toons what do you think In my idea

ML Maroon: very good I have waited for someone to buy this old building after my grandfather CB Maroon passed away and I protected this building and avoid possible demolitions and even a Chinese toy manufacturer wanted to buy the building and convert it into a Chinese toy store and well take the keys to the studio and it would be about 25,000 dollars

Mike: how good and also I was able to put all my savings together to fulfill my dream and here take here they are 32480000

ML Maroon: wow you've saved a lot of money and here's the change 32455000

Mike: thanks I can finally make my animated movies

(Mike enters the abandoned building and sees a lot of tools and cameras and movie props almost intact)

Mike: wow this place needs a remodel and all these things need a restoration

(A strong house sounds screams and moves alone)

Mike: what was that? hello who's here I hope it's not the ghost of RK Maroon

(Mike sees a safe and it moves alone)

Mike: uh I hope it's not a joker trying to play a joke on me. Hello (touches the safe hitting it 5 times and it explodes and Roger appears)

Roger: Tada I'm free

Mike: oh my god it's a miracle

Roger: who said that ahhhhh who are you

Mike: well I'm your fan

Roger: wait a cool fan I haven't met a fan for a long time while I was locked in that safe while escaping from the Disney guards and I hid in this abandoned building and I'm trapped in this safe and although I'm free what year is it today is 1949

Mike: no actually we're in 2025

Roger rabbit wait like 2025 we're in the future go eh I was hidden and trapped for 76 years in that safe and tell me are we in the future and are there flying cars or time machines or not

Mike: not really and a question you said one thing that you escaped from Disney what happened to this studio why did it close

Roger: Well I think it's my fault. I was working on a new short and I ruined it and the director Raoul j. Raoul got fed up with me and forced me to go work for Disney. I thought I was going to meet my idol Goofy, but it turns out if I worked for Disney it would cause the closure of Maroon Cartoons. Then I started working at Disney and Mickey Mouse gave me the role of extra in Mickey Mouse shorts and he forbade me to talk to the stars Mickey Donald and Goofy and other characters. I wanted to quit, Mickey denied me and decided to do it my way, but the guards were chasing me and I hid in this place to avoid being taken away and without being trapped I was trapped in that safe. I don't know if Disney still wants to hand me over to them or not.

Mike: I don't know, even if you were trapped in that safe and they didn't find you, well, they decided to believe that you were dead.

Roger: I understand, but it's a good idea that the mouse who kidnapped me believes that I am dead and I forget and I wonder if my boss CB Maroon and wife Jessica or my best friend Detective Eddie valiant are still

Mike: hey roger jessica thinks you're dead and also she retired from acting last year and some bad news your friend eddie died in 2014 and your boss CB Maroon died in 1997

Roger: wait aaaahhh (starts crying) ppp because first RK and his brother CB and now my best friend eddie and I also lost my wife I feel like everyone has forgotten and I feel alone

Mike: calm down roger you're with a fan who's going to be your best friend and also I'm an animator and I think I can bring back your fame

Roger: seriously are you going to bring back my fame great but I don't think you can make roger cartoons without some cartoonish friends like me and he had a friend who was a cartoon and he's baby herman and also I wonder what he's doing

Mike: hey I think he already works in an antique store in toontown

Roger: oh and now where will I get new cartoonish friends

Mike: hey Roger: I told you I'm an animator, artist, and illustrator, and I have a surprise. I made these drawings of 2 characters that could be your friends, and I need to bring them to life, and I don't know how.

Roger: I remember where, and I saw a thing that can create cartoons, and it's in my boss's office. Come on.(Mike and Roger go to RK Maroon's boss's office and see inside, everything is intact, and a few broken objects on the floor.)

Roger: Let's see, I think if I do this. (He presses a button on the desk and opens a secret door, there's a workshop with many canned films and a machine.)

Mike: Wow,

Roger: Here is the film-making workshop, and here is a machine that can help you.

Mike: ok thank you very much and it's time to meet your new friends (puts the 2 drawings in the machine and suddenly the 2 characters come out)

Mike: and they are Mr. Pufftendo The Fox

Mr. Pufftendo: good morning

Mike: and Jeff The Cat

Jeff: what's up

Roger: oh what new characters and friends

Mr. Pufftendo: wow what a place is this

Jeff: yes this place seems like it has not been cleaned for years

Roger: guys this is the Maroon Cartoons studio that was previously owned by my boss and my creator RK Maroon but now it is owned by Mike my fan

Mike: yes I know

Mr. Pufftendo: Great

Jeff: oh incredible

(Roger sees a picture of RK and the first character he created and it is jacquey le mime skunk and bouncey the bouncy rabbit)

Roger: aw RK even if you're dead I miss you a lot

Mike: you really miss that RK Maroon and a question what happened to the one who died

Roger: well RK Maroon is not only my boss he is my creator or rather he is my father and unfortunately he was murdered by my greatest enemy Judge Doom but my friend Eddie and I were able to defeat them twice the first with Eddie's help and the other is that the weasels revived him and Judge Doom pretended to be RK's brother and Eddie and I also defeated him and we found and saved RKmaroon's real brother who is CB and became the owner of the studio until I ruined it and Raoul the director forced me to go to Disney and working with Disney was also very horrible wow I miss them both and especially RK Maroon he is more important because he is my father

Mike: ha I have an idea
(Goes to the animation and drawing workshop)
Roger: Mike where are you going

Mr. Pufftendo go your fan I do not know what he's going to do right now

(Mike draws a version of RK Maroon but as a Cartoon Raccoon)
Mike: wow it's very hot in here I will open the windows (Mike opens a window that was near a hat that belonged to RK Maroon that was hanging on the wall and a small breeze of wind passes over the hat and causes a small particle of RK Maroon's hair to fly away and fall on the drawing of Rakoon Maroon the raccoon already finished and Mike doesn't notice then Mike puts the drawing in the machine and manages to come to life the drawing)

Mike: finally hey Roger I have a surprise for you meet this new character that inspired me in your father or creator and his name is Rakoon Maroon

Roger: wow that's great

Rakoon Maroon: aah what happened hey why is my office all dirty and who are you and those others and eh roger is you

Roger: yes Rakoon Maroon

Rakoon Maroon: why do you call me that I'm not a raccoon I'm a human and I'm RK Maroon

Roger: Wait RK Maroon is that really you

Rakoon Maroon: Yes what happened I only remember that someone shot me and I fell and woke up here (he looks in a mirror and sees that he is now a raccoon)

Rakoon Maroon: Wait is that me now I am a cartoon aaahh what happened to me because I see myself. So

Mike: I don't know, I just drew you and I didn't know I was going to revive a dead person, but how is it possible? (sees the hat hanging near the window)

Mike: Now I understand, I think that while I opened the window a breeze of wind passed through that hat of yours that apparently had a small hair of yours and fell on my drawing and the DNA of your human hair mixed with my drawing that I made, making you revive again but turned into a cartoon.

Rakoon Maroon: This is weird, wait, does that mean that now there are 2 RK Maroons, one is my dead human self who is buried in some cemetery and the other is me, a cartoonish raccoon with a human soul. Wow, this is weird and I wonder who killed me because I want to get what they deserve.

Roger: Hey RK, well, I know who your killer was.

Rakoon Maroon: Please tell me.

Roger: Judge Doom killed you

Rakoon Maroon: Wait, really.

Roger: Yes, that guy was very bad too, he wanted to kill me, but luckily I was able to defeat him.

Rakoon Maroon: Oh wait were you able to kill my murderer thank you very much and although I'm alive again as a cartoon raccoon I congratulate you on your work and what happened to my studio after I died

Roger: Oh well your brother CB decided to be the new owner of your studio

Rakoon Maroon: Wait my brother became the owner but a question why is it abandoned what happened

Roger: Well I made a mistake while working on a new short and the director Raoul j. Raoul got fed up with me the reason is that he hated me and forced me to go to Disney and this caused the studio to close and I ruined it I'm sorry it was all my fault

Rakoon Maroon: oh I understand you but one thing I always hated, that Raoul guy was very grumpy and also had a rule that he couldn't fire you are you my creation or my son and that Raoul was the one to blame for making my job fall and now look at it it's all abandoned and dirty

Mike: hey Mr. Maroon can I reopen your studio since I am the new owner of this studio and you could be my manager or my work partner

Rakoon Maroon: oh what a great idea thank you very much what's your name

Mike: I'm Mike Mike Teavee a fan of cartoons and a fan of Roger Rabbit

Rakoon Maroon: oh what a nice surprise

Mike: ok one thing Mr. Maroon and Roger

Roger: what's up

Rakoon Maroon: what is Mike

Mike: Well I found this picture of you from 1938 along with 2 characters one is a rabbit similar to Roger but it is not the Roger that I know and the other is this character that is a skunk with clothes like a mime that is greeting you

Rakoon Maroon: Oh I know but I did not tell Roger but I am going to say it

Roger: What are you talking about Mr. RK

Rakoon Maroon: Roger I am going to tell you that you have 2 brothers one is a rabbit and the other a skunk

Roger: Wait 2 brothers great and what happened to

Rakoon Maroon: I will explain it is that many believe that Roger was the first character that I made but in reality he is not and it turns out that when I opened my studio in 1932 I created my first character called Jacquy Le Mime the mime skunk and he was my first character long before Roger and then I made an old version of Roger in 1935 and his name was not Roger but bouncey the bouncy rabbit and these 2 were silent characters in black and white but in 1940 the arrival of color movies became fashionable that year and this caused silent movies in black and white to go out of style and I decided to stop using Jacky and Bouncey the old version of Roger locking him in a secret vault that is in this studio and then I created a color redesign of Roger Rabbit as a replacement for Bouncey which is literally you but in color

Roger: oh wow I hope they are still alive even in that vault

Rakoon Maroon: yes and then I forgot about Jacky and Bouncey and I think I am still here in my secret vault just the 2 of them

Mike: wow what a sad story it is better that you free them and they know the 21st century

Rakoon Maroon: yes I think I was very bad with my first creations and it is better to apologize to them and reconcile (opens a door under the floor and goes down to a secret basement and finds the secret vault and it opens)

Rakoon Maroon: hello jacquey bouncey

Bouncey: (yawns silently and sees is surprised and calls his brother jacquey le mime)

Jacquey: (goes out and takes out a sign that says finally I'm free)

Rakoon Maroon: hello I'm your father RK Maroon

Jacquey and bouncey: (gets scared and screams but without noise and takes out another sign that says aaaaahhhhh who are you)

Rakoon Maroon: sorry is that a boy revived me turning into a cartoon raccoon But I am the same (Jacquey and bouncey take out some signs that say daddy is it really you)

Rakoon Maroon: yes and I'm sorry for locking you in this secret vault for many years it is better that you return to work like old times

(Jaquey and bouncey hug rakoon maroon and take out another sign that says thank you daddy)

Roger: what a beautiful moment hey hi I am roger your brother

(Jaquey and bouncey do not understand and they are confused)

Roger: uh they didn't understand me

Rakoon Maroon: Hey you must understand that they are mute and the only way to communicate is by writing words on sheets or signs like that (grabs a white sheet and writes he is Roger his older brother) (Jacquey takes out a sign that says: seriously. Bouncey with a sign that says it's great to have a new brother and the 2 hug Roger)

Roger: thanks guys I always wanted to have brothers

Mike: Hey Rakoon Maroon I mean Mr. RK Maroon

Rakoon Maroon: Yes what's up

Mike: Although I have already revived you tell me a little about your story of how your animation studio was founded

Rakoon Maroon: Well it all started in 1867 my father was called AB Maroon he was a simple homeless vagabond until one day he got lost in the forest and survived in nature and while looking for food and fishing for fish he found gold nuggets and this made him become a millionaire and have a luxury mansion and a wife in 1896 the maroon twins CB and were born I RK but the human me and we liked to draw art and watch movies until one day my father and mother died in 1915 and now that we have the money that my family had that they inherited to us, I wanted to open my own movie studio and my brother too but we didn't know which of the two would have all the money and we argued and fought until my brother got fed up with me and decided to leave forever although I never saw him again because I kept the money and made my studio in 1932 the maroon studio and I started creating jacquey and bouncy and then roger in 1939 but I lost it because of that judge doom who killed me in 1947 and my brother cb dealt with took over my studio and now raoul fired roger and caused the studio to decline and it was abandoned and then a roger fan revived me turning me into a cartoon raccoon
Mike: oh what a story that you had Mr. RK

Rakoon Maroon: yes I understand you but although you are finally going to reopen my animation studio I finally got my job back

Mike: yes hey do you want us to make a roger rabbit cartoon together

Rakoon Maroon: sure

Mike: and also do you want to be part of this new cartoon

Rakoon Maroon: well I have always made animated films but I have never acted in one but finally I am a living cartoon then I accept

Mike: okay

Rakoon Maroon: one thing what is this new cartoon that you are going to make about

Mike: well it is about something very emotional and it is the life of father and son and living together peacefully as a family

Rakoon Maroon: wow that sounds fabulous

Mike: it is time to start this movie

(Teaveetoons cartoons logo and title of the short film begins: Roger Rabbit and Rakoon Maroon on a sunny day with my raccoon dad)

A park is shown and Roger Rabbit on a bicycle with his dad Rakoon Maroon until Roger trips and falls and Roger is crying because he has a rock stuck in his foot and Rakoon Maroon sees the problem and decides to take some tweezers out of his pants and takes the rock out of Roger's foot and then he takes out a band-aid tape and wraps Roger with many band-aids until Roger is very bandaged and looks like a mummy of bandage and can't move and speak through his covered mouth and Rakoon Maroon gives Roger a lollipop and they both start laughing and then Roger is shown walking quietly in the park and sees Rakoon Maroon working as a balloon seller and Roger wants a balloon

Roger: Oh hi, give me a balloon please and make it big and red because it's my favorite color

Rakoon Maroon: Okay, by God, what am I seeing over there

Roger: Uh where can't I see (Rakoon Maroon puts the helium tank hose in his pants and inflates roger's pants and roger starts to fly)

Roger: uh but what's happening because I start to fly and because I have a huge butt

Rakoon maroon: there is your red balloon that you wanted

Roger: oh thanks hahaha

And then it shows rakoon maroon teaching roger how to catch fish

Rakoon maroon: first grab the net like this and throw it and then turn the crank and you have a fish

Roger: ok now I understand I do this and this and this and this and that and deputy doopity doooo (he throws the net very fast until it ends up hooked on jacquey le mime's sailor hat while driving a boat and whistling (scene that parodies the first mickey mouse steamboat willy short from 1928) and jacquey's hat flies away and jacquey stops whistling and realizes that roger stole the hat and Rakoon maroon and roger run away while jacquey chases rakoon maroon and roger with his boat and there the movie ends

Mike: cut

Rakoom Maroon: wow my first time acting in a movie with my son roger

Roger: That was very emotional to see my dad again and work with him again

(Mike enters the workshop to work on converting the camera recording from 35mm film to digital mp4 format hears a high-pitched squeal in a warehouse)

Mike: what could be that noise coming from that door?(Mike enters the warehouse and finds a box that has a cartoonish shoe inside that squeals and cries)

Mike: oh poor thing you're lost don't be sad

(Little shoe making squeaky noises)

Mike: uh I don't understand you

Roger: uh what's going on

Rakoon Maroon: Mike what's happening

mr pufftendo the fox and jeff the cat: what's going on

Mike: Well I found this cartoonish little shoe that looks like it's crying but I don't understand it

Rakoon Maroon: Hey, is that not

Roger's shoe? Roger: That short tap dancing is just Topsy twins and wait, where's tapzy? Hey, Topsy, what happened to Tapzy?

Topsy the shoe: Squeaky sounds

Roger: Oh, are you saying that my enemy Judge Doom killed your brother? Poor Tapzy died because of Judge Doom's melter. How bad this reminds me that Eddie Valiant had a brother and that my greatest enemy killed his brother. Well, I'm sorry for your loss. Topsy

Mike: I have an idea. Grabs Topsy.

Roger: Uh, what are you going to do with Topsy?

Mike, wait. Finds a knife in the props and cuts the toony shoe in half.

Roger: Noooo, Topsy, why is Topsy split, but Topsy regenerates and so does Tapzy.

Tapzy: (Squeaky sound. Uh, tapzy, it's you.)

Tapzy: (Squeaky sound. Yes, Topsy is alive, wow. That was the only thing I remember: after Judge Doom melted me with his poison. called the dip of nowhere I woke up in the body of a yellow kid who lived in a american yellow family house but then I woke up in my real shoe body and I'm back with you bro)

Topsy: squeaky sound (how good yeah)

Rakoon maroon: wow it's a miracle tapzy is back

Roger: oh my god how is this possible

Mike: calm down I know you are cartoons and I know a lot about how they work

Roger: oh I forgot about the magic of the toon force

Mike: yes and also I was once inside a television

Roger: oh really

Mike: yes I was a lucky child who was able to visit a giant chocolate factory in London England and I entered a special room that uses television to teleport food and shrink it and I wanted to enter that teleporter although I was very little inside the television the most famous British chocolatier in the world took me out and returned me to my original size that's why I always wanted to work here

Roger: wow did you meet this

Mike: yes I know who you mean and it's the famous chocolatier willy wonka

Roger: wow great

Mike: one thing roger i heard that you met topsy and tapzy in a short film where you were a professional dancer and i've never heard of that short i've only seen four shorts and they are somethin's cookin, tummy trouble, roller coaster rabbit and trail mix up and but i've never heard of other short films and this is something i want to investigate

Roger: oh wow i can't believe there are only 4 short films and that many are no longer available and many don't know about it

Mike: If after the closure of Maroon Cartoons only 4 were rescued and many are not available and also here are the lost shorts in this warehouse full of many shorts that were not distributed on DVD or VHS or are not on the internet, what if I upload some shorts that are considered lost to the internet and that the new generations know you and even Jacquie le Mime and Bouncey the Rabbit
First we will start to see this short film that debuts the twin shoes topsy and tapzy called Roger Rabbit in Tap N Clack N Dance from 1942

Roger: It's time to start the movie show

(Short begins with Maroon Cartoons logo and title card appears that says Roger Rabbit in Tap N Clack N Dance)

Roger is shown walking in the city and sees a dance school and sees a sign

Roger: jeppers, free dance classes, great

(Roger enters the school with a big jump)

Roger: What's up

Dance instructor: Welcome to the dance school, what's do you want mister

Roger: well I want to be a professional broadway dancer

Instructor: I have bad news you can't enter because you don't wear shoes and the rules say without shoes there is no service and out

(Take Roger out of the establishment and he falls on a trash bin)

Roger: wow but that guy was so rude I better go home uh I feel something strange in my foot I think some gum stuck to it uh a 100 dollar bill great what will I buy with this bill wow (shoe store and the topsy and tapzy shoes are shown on a shelf and the 2 shoes make squeaky noises and topsy takes out a sign that says hello buy me for only 100 dollars and tapzy takes out a sign that says we are shy)

Roger: oh how good (enters the store and buys the new shoes and puts them on)

Roger: ok it's time for that bitter guy to realize that I wear shoes

Dance instructor: you said long again ooh you already have your shoes come in please

Roger: how good

Instructor: ok time to play this song (turns on the turntable)

(Roger starts dancing)

Roger: wow now I'm a pro

Instructor: time to step up the game with the next song uh oh no the turntable needle moves oh no the speed is increasing

(Roger starts dancing faster)

Roger: Oh I can't stop dancing (turns into a tornado and hits the walls and ceilings and the dance school collapses into a thousand pieces and the instructor gets angry about what Roger did)

Roger: oops sorry I have to go

(walks away dancing while the instructor is chasing him and the Roger Rabbit short film ends)

Roger: wow this short film was crazy

Mike: I know roger it's time to watch another short how about we are going to witness the first short made by RK Maroon and it is Jacquy le Mime in Speedy Skunk Mime from 1932

(The short film begins with the title of Maroon Cartoons Presents Jacquy le Mime in Speedy Mime Skunk and it begins as if a race track is about to begin all the racers bring their cars and Jacquy le Mime arrives with a special car or it is an invisible car and the race begins and the racers go in their cars at full speed and they see that a skunk is driving an invisible car and that it is floating in the air and some cars go through an area with traps like quicksand a car gets trapped and the driver of the car gets out and sees that his car sinks deep into the quicksand but Jacquy passes as if nothing and then the cars go through a suspension bridge and the suspension bridge breaks and under the bridge there are crocodiles and Jacquy passes as if nothing in that broken bridge and the crocodiles jump and get hit by Jacquy's invisible car and also the cars jump over a cliff although many collide when they fall to the ground and the drivers fly away with parachutes to avoid accidents but only one car falls normally to the track without damage and is about to reach the finish line but Jacquy goes over the cliff but does not fall if not the car flies and falls slowly and crosses through the rival and reaches the finish line and Jacquy wins the finish line and the short film ends)

Roger: wow very impressive short film you made Jacquy

Jacquy: (takes out a sign that says you're welcome)

Mike: good news I was able to upload the lost shorts to the internet many will finally know Roger Rabbit and Jacquy and I only need to find the first Roger Rabbit short film which is Bouncey the Bouncy Rabbit from 1935

Roger: oh how good my fame is about to be revived

(Meanwhile at the Walt Disney Studios)

Mickey Mouse: wow the live action movies are not working I need something to keep the company stable

Disney Employee: Hey Mickey I found some good news remember that rabbit that you hired and that rabbit quit and ran away

Mickey Mouse: Wait you mean Roger Rabbit

Employee: Yes Mickey

Mickey Mouse: I knew this day was coming and where has he always been

Disney Employee: At the old Maroon studio and fan bought it and found Roger

Mickey Mouse: It's time for my rabbit to be where he belongs

(Mickey Mouse arrives at the Maroon Cartoons studio and realizes that it's now called Mike Teavee and Maroon Cartoons Studios)

Mickey Mouse: Uh this studio already has a new owner

Mike: Hello Mickey what do you want

Mickey Mouse: Well I came here for something that belongs to me and that is Roger Rabbit he must work with me now

Roger: Wait ppp please not again

Mickey Mouse: Come on Roger, come to dad

Roger: Stop, you're not my real father and I finally have a real dad

Mickey Mouse: who is it Bugs Bunny or the Easter Bunny

Rakoon Maroon: Actually, it's me

Mickey Mouse: Uh, and who is this

Rakoon Maroon: I'm RK Maroon and stay away from my son

Mickey Mouse: Wait RK is it you? I thought you were dead and what happened to you because you're a cartoonish raccoon Rakoon Maroon: Well, Roger Rabbit's number one fan revived me and now he's the new owner of Roger Rabbit and I'm the father of my bunny and I don't want a money-loving mouse to touch my son Mike: And also, what are you going to use Roger for?

Mickey Mouse: Well, use him as an extra in movies or make him the janitor of the Disney and Pixar studios

Mike: Wait, that's all

Rakoon Maroon: Sorry, but no, I have rules for my son, he can't be a secondary character or extra in movies or anything janitor of the studio because he is a main actor and the mascot of Maroon Cartoons Studios and Roger belongs to us

Mickey Mouse: You know that I think I was very bad to Roger, I think it is better that you keep Roger, I do not need him anymore and also Roger

Roger: Yes Mickey Mouse

Mickey Mouse: Well your contract is over and goodbye, I better continue with my current job, leave the live actions and make new movies and sequels of Toy Story and make more toys and goodbye

Roger: Well, I finally got rid of that mouse and although Jessica Rabbit and baby Herman and my best friend Eddie Valiant are no longer here, but finally I am with my new friends Mike, my number one fan, and my new brothers Jacques Le Mime, Skunk, and Bouncey the Rabbit, and my new friends Jeff the Cat and the Fox, Mr. Pufftendo, and my dad the raccoon RK Maroon

Rakoon Maroon: I know he will always be my son

Narrator: Since a fan of Roger Rabbit who is a 4th former winner of the Willy Wonka golden ticket named Mike Teavee bought the old Maroon Cartoons studio and now that he is the new owner of the character and also Mike revived RK Maroon the former owner of the Maroon Cartoons studio and even the creator of Roger and who now works with Mike Teavee making traditional 2D animated films in 2025 and little by little Roger's fame is being revived making some old veteran fans of Roger Rabbit who are now adults are happy to see the return of their favorite character and even Roger is starting to get new fans who are small children who are meeting him for the first time but well very few fans because many children today confuse Roger with another character named Jax the rabbit from the famous animated internet series called The Amazing Digital Circus the reason why there is another rabbit similar to Roger is because the creator of that series was inspired by Roger to create to jax but well here we see roger walking down the street and a kid knows him kid: (goes to roger) oh my god iss you roger: yes i am roger kid: are you jax from the amazing digital circus gives me his autograph roger: sorry you confused me with another character bye (roger leaves)

roger: wow i'm sick of a lot of kids these days confusing me with another character who looks like me and is more popular than me and it's getting late for me to go to work and meet some real fans

(roger goes very quickly to the maroon cartoons studio which is now called Teavee And Maroon Studios and he finds a meeting with a lot of adults who are old veteran fans of roger rabbit and mike appears) mike: ladies and gentlemen this is the special screening where a lost roger rabbit short film will be shown that was never seen and that has now been recovered and is now remastered and restored and it is the first roger rabbit short made in 1935 called by his first name bouncey the bouncy rabbit (The short film begins with a title of maroon cartoons present bouncey the bouncy rabbit made by RK maroon and then shows bouncey jumping very calmly until he runs into a very high mountain he tries to jump very high until he reaches the top of the mountain but he can't and he comes up with a great idea he goes for a helium tank and inflates his pants until he can finally fly in the sky but a bird arrives and explodes bouncey's pants and bouncey falls on the top of the mountain and realizes he finally climbed the mountain and the short ends)

adult fans of roger: wow this is the most beautiful thing I've seen for the first time the first roger rabbit short film ever created

Mike: and also some news this studio is going to be moved to a magical and special place and it's toontown and but you might wonder how Well using the magic of the toonforce it becomes reality so you press a button and the studio building appears a gigantic balloon that makes it fly and takes it to its new relocation and it's toontown and the building lands in toontown everything is normal

Mike: officially this will be the first movie studio in all of toontown and also since marvin acme the owner of the acme company has passed away and his company has closed because I created a new character who is an inventor and his new replacement and his name is mr pufftendo

Mr pufftendo the fox appears

Mr pufftendo: hello I am the fox Mr pufftendo and I am an expert inventor in cartoon toys and I will be the new replacement for the acme brand also here is my great factory of magical toys and cartoon supplies pufftendo brand

Mike: this character inspired me a lot in willy wonka the He was an old friend and I miss him a lot, that's why I made this character so that Toontown has its own Willy Wonka

(and then it shows again at the Disney studio where Mickey Mouse is in his office)

Mickey: I can't believe a fan was able to revive Roger's creator by mixing RK Maroon's DNA and a cartoon reviving machine that works with Toon Force magic and what if I can do the same but only using modern computer technology with AI and I had an idea (Mickey presses a button under his desk and opens a secret underground door that leads to a secret basement and has a crystal tomb with the frozen corpse of its creator and founder who is Walt Disney and opens the ice tomb and Mickey takes a small piece of Walt Disney's hair and closes the tomb again and Mickey goes to his office and takes a small hair of Walt Disney for an invention that is a kind of micro robot drone that creates life-size holograms and puts Walt Disney's hair on the micro robot drone and then puts that robot to a computer and Mickey starts writing some codes and puts all of Walt Disney's memories and starts this project but Mickey doesn't realize that your computer is infected with a mysterious computer virus called DVMMYW3453L.exe and Mickey Mouse did not know that his computer was infected with that computer virus with an AI of Judge Doom but his invention ends and Mickey tests that micro drone with AI that creates a hologram with the mind of Walt Disney and is surprised by his invention but Mickey did not know that his robot hologram also has the mind of Judge Doom)

Walt Disney hologram: Hello son, long time no see

Mickey Mouse: Oh my god it works it works I revived my dad I'm going to tell my friends (Mickey leaves his office and the Walt Disney hologram begins glitching and his eyes turn red and has the mind of Dummy Weasel or Judge Doom and begins to speak with the voice of Dummy Weasel) dummy weasel: finally I'm back uh what happened here (sees a computer with a 3d animation program with cgi made by disney pixar) what are these things that look like televisions with buttons and what are these weird 3d cartoons that are made by this magical television with many buttons (sees a window opens the window and sees a sign in disneyland park that says new attraction coming soon summer 2025) dummy weasel: wait I'm not in 1948 anymore but 2025 means I traveled to the future (closes window and accidentally touches the computer and that animation in development is permanently erased) (dummy weasel suddenly glitch and recovers Walt Disney's mind)

Mickey Mouse: Goofy Donald and other characters from Disney and Pixar movies meet my father Walt Disney

Walt Disney hologram: oh hello Mickey and his friends and the new ones from Pixar movies

Mickey Mouse: Wait because the computer is off (turns it on and sees that the animation file of the new Pixar was deleted)

Mickey Mouse: Oh no you touch the computer Mr. Walt

Walt Disney hologram: Of course not I was just standing there waiting for you I didn't touch that uh thing

Mickey Mouse: Oh I hope someone has a backup copy but anyway I have a surprise for you because we are going to visit Toontown many inhabitants of there want to meet you

(The hologram glitch and speaks with the voice of Dummy Weasel angrily and shouting loudly)

Dummy Weasel: Did you say ToonTown

(His memory of Walt Disney returns)

Walt Disney hologram: Sorry Mickey, well I am very excited to know that place I have not visited it I do not know when I died

Mickey Mouse: Well it is your lucky day because it turns out that I met an old friend who later became my enemy but I apologized to him and I became his friend and he is Roger Rabbit

Dummy Weasel: What did you say Roger Rabbit?

Walt Disney Hologram: Sorry, what's up with Roger?

Mickey Mouse: Well, I have some news for you, Roger, and a new friend revived your old friend and he's RK Maroon and he wants to meet you at his animation studio Maroon Cartoons Studios which has now been relocated to Toontown. You have to visit him

Walt Disney Hologram: Yes, that's okay,

Mickey. Well, I have to go. Bye.

(Mickey and his friends leave, leaving the Walt Disney Hologram alone in the office).

Walt Disney Hologram: Well, bye. (It glitching and Dummy Weasel's mind returns).

Dummy weasel: so roger rabbit and his friend revived their creator who just killed me because I'll have to kill him again and even roger and kill all the cartoons and continue with my plan hahaha uh what is this (see a plan or instructions on how to make a micro robot drone that works with dna and ai that creates holograms) oh change of plans what if I use this to create evil clones and use them to not only end the cartoons but exterminate the human race and dominate the world hahaha and mix toonforce and ai to revive humans and turn them into zombie cyborg slaves hahahaha (he steals the plans and takes the plans of Mickey Mouse's invention and also computers that Disney and Pixar use and leaves the Disney studio and steals a truck and goes far away and reaches Judge Doom's secret lair already abandoned and finds his dip supplies and begins his evil plan in secret)

Mickey mouse: hey walt ya it's time to go to toon uh where is my dad walt

(Dummy weasel arrives in the body of the Walt Disney hologram and pretending to be Walt so that Mickey does not discover it and with sunglasses that cover his evil red eyes of Judge Doom)

Dummy weasel pretending to be Walt Disney: Hello Mickey

Mickey Mouse: Walt why are you wearing sunglasses

Dummy weasel pretending to be Walt Disney: The sun is very hot and it hurts my eyes that's why

Mickey Mouse: And why are you wearing that giant thing that covers it with a blanket

Dummy weasel pretending to be Walt Disney: It's a gift for my old friend RK Maroon That can help in his animation studio

Mickey: Well let's go to Toontown

(Mickey Mouse and the Walt Disney hologram although Mickey does not know that it is really Judge Doom pretending to be Walt Disney and brings a secret gift for RK Maroon)

(All Toontown residents are gathered at the Teavee & Maroon cartoons studio to see the unexpected visit of Walt Disney and that he brings a sorority gift for RK Maroon)

Mickey Mouse: Hello people of Toontown, I'm Mickey Mouse and I have a surprise since Roger Rabbit and his friend and no, it's not Eddie Valiant but his number 1 fan Mike Teavee managed to revive the creator of Roger Rabbit and the owner of Maroon Cartoons and it's RK Maroon who is now known by his cartoon name Rakoon Maroon the raccoon because I decided to do something similar although I stopped using Toonforce for a few years because now I focus on the most modern technology with the help of 3D CGI animation with computers and live action and I decided to revive my father with the help of modern AI technology and they want to meet him.

Toontown residents: Yessss!

Mickey Mouse: Well, to meet him, say my magic words: Miska Muska Mickey Mouse, and now say hello to my dad, Mr. Walt Disney himself.

Dummy Weasel pretending to be Walt Disney: Hello everyone, I'm back friends.

Some Toontown characters: Holy cow, he's Mickey's dad.

Dummy Weasel pretending to be Walt Disney: And one thing, where is RK Maroon and Roger Rabbit? I want to meet them in person, is that I have a surprise gift.

Mickey Mouse: They are here

Roger: Good morning Mr. Walt Disney.

Rakoon Maroon: Hello old friend, long time no see.

Dummy Weasel pretending to be Walt Disney: Are you RK Maroon?

Rakoon Maroon: Yes, I am the same even if I am a cartoonish raccoon, but oh well, and what do you want?

Dummy Weasel pretending to be Walt Disney: I have something for you, come to the studio (Roger Rabbit and Rakoon Maroon and the Walt Disney hologram with the mind of Dummy Weasel but pretends to be Walt Disney so he doesn't discover it, go to the studio to see RK Maroon and Roger's gift and Dummy weasel pretending to be Walt Disney takes out the blanket from the gift and it's a kind of cloning machine)

Dummy weasel pretending to be Walt Disney: Admire this is a super cartoon cloner This allows a character to create an exact clone only using cartoon DNA and then that sample is used in a nanobot drone that projects a hologram with AI of the character and voila you have your robot clone of yourself to use as a extras in movies

Roger: Wait is that safe

Rakoon Maroon: And it works

Dummy weasel pretending to be Walt Disney: Yes it is safe and it works and both will be the first to use this wonderful invention (They push Roger and Rakoon Maroon towards the machine and create robot clones of Roger and Rakoon Maroon that work with drones of holograms with AI and also cartoon DNA and even DIP)

Roger: Wait why did you do this Walt Disney

Dummy weasel: Actually I'm not Walt Disney I'm one of your greatest enemies that merged into one and i am judge doom merged with the weasels and now call me dummy weasel and my plan is that i just stole mickey's invention to use his hologram robot drones and then use all the toontown cartoons and clone them and create robot clones with ai of cartoon characters and they will leave toontown and end the human race and after the humans have died i will revive them in cyborg zombies and they will be my slaves and that way i will rule the world

Roger: noooooo

Dummy weasel: well bye

(Dummy weasel suddenly pretends to be walt disney again and goes with mickey along with his evil clones roger and rakoon maroon)

Mickey mouse: hello walt and roger and rakoon maroon

Dummy weasel pretending to be walt disney: hello mickey mouse

(Roger and Rakoon Maroon start to speak very slowly and without emotions in a neutral way as if they were robots with AI)

Roger: hellooooooooooooo

Rakoon Maroon: hiiiiiiiiiiii

Mickey mouse: uh walt is it me or why do roger and rakoon maroon talk weird

Dummy weasel: roger catches mickey mouse (roger clone with ia captures mickey mouse)

Mickey mouse: hey what does this mean dummy weasel: actually he is not roger he is an evil clone for my evil plan and also I am not your father and I am judge doom and the weasels fused now call me dummy weasel

Mickey mouse: judge doom you were not supposed to be dead

Dummy weasel: well it turns out that since I was judge doom and the weasels melted to death by the dip we fell down a sewer turned into a small ball of melted dip dough in the drain and I have fused with the weasels until I became this hybrid or fused character called dummy weasel and although I was trapped inside a small bubble of dip down the drain for a long time until the 2000s passed, that little ball of dip passed through an underground duct that reached the Disney offices and a leaky pipe caused the dip with dummy weasel to fall through an internet server at the Disney studio, causing that dip with dummy weasel, the fusion of Judge Doom and the weasels to become the DVMMYW3453L. EXE virus, but I was able to get out of the internet by passing the virus to your animatronic hologram with your dad's AI, Mr. Walt Disney, and now I'm going to start my evil plan

(Rakoon Maroon's robot turns his arms into spiders and absorbs the Toontown characters and takes them to the cloning machine and creates evil clones of cartoon characters)

Mike: Hey, what's going on, hey Roger, why are you attacking Mickey? That's wrong. (Mike hits Roger in the head and until evil Roger fails and disappears and the drone is revealed. robot and breaks and Mickey is released and Roger is shown managing to get out of the trap of the cloning machine)
Roger Rabbit: I'm free

Mike: Oh, I didn't kill Roger and it turns out he was a ghost with a drone as a brain

Mickey: That wasn't Roger, that was an evil robot clone and it turns out my Walt Disney hologram robot was infected with a computer virus that turns out to be Judge Doom and the weasels fused creating a dummy weasel and trapped the inhabitants of Toontown for I don't know with a Rakoon Maroon robot For I don't know what

Roger: I know that Judge Doom or dummy weasel stole your robot drones for his plan which is to kill all humans with the cartoon robot clones and then revive humans by turning them into zombie cyborg slaves and we must stop him Before it's too late (Roger hits the Rakoon Maroon robot and the real Rakoon Maroon is released from the cloning machine)

Rakoon Maroon: I'm finally free thanks Roger

Roger: You're welcome, oh don't look.

(Dummy weasel with an army of cartoon robot clones heading towards the exit from Toontown to the real world)

Roger: There aren't many, I don't know how we'll finish them all off, we're just Mickey Mouse and Rakoon Maroon and my fan Mike Teavee and I and we can't stop them all (Mr. Pufftendo the fox arrives with a car with hammers)

Mr. Pufftendo: Hello, I saw you're in big trouble

Roger Rabbit: Mr. Pufftendo

Mr. Pufftendo: Everyone get in the car, it's time to save Toontown (The car goes at full speed running over the robot clones and Roger, Mike Teavee, Mickey Mouse and Rakoon Maroon hit some clones with cartoonish objects like hammers, anvils, pies and surprise boxes with boxing gloves with resolutions and when the robots are destroyed, the cloning machine releases the cartoon characters and the cloning machine destroys itself and then only Dummy Weasel remains)

Dummy Weasel: Noo my evil plan has been ruined

Mickey Mouse: stop dummy weasel or rather daddy

Dummy Weasel: I already told you that I am not your father Walt Disney I am Judge Doom Doom Doom and Doom can not be the father of a filthy rodent and I hate you and your stupid dad

Mickey Mouse: hey walt I know that you are here and although Judge Doom controls your body and your mind and I have something that I think this will make you refresh your mind
(Mickey starts whistling the Steamboat Willy theme)

Dummy Weasel: no no no this song does not stop please I can not stand it anymore I can not I can not (starts to glitching and recovers Walt Disney's memory)

Walt Disney: Mickey it's you and it's time to get rid of this virus that manipulates me (puts his hand in his ear and takes Dummy Weasel out of Walt Disney's mind and Walt Disney hits Dummy Weasel very hard until he flies into the sky very high and falls into a barrel filled with acetone an ingredient of the dip that this barrel was from an acetone factory and dummy weasel dies forever permanently melting and glitching and then in toontown everything returns to normal and the meeting begins)

Mickey mouse: I'm sorry for everything that happened I could not believe that Judge Doom revived in the form of a computer virus that controls artificial intelligences and finally we have defeated it with the help of Roger Rabbit and Rakoon Maroon and his fan Mike Teavee and even Mr. Pufftendo the fox could not be missing and that the Walt Disney hologram is completely disinfected of that evil virus and is as before And finally everyone meets my father again

Walt Disney: I know Mickey thanks for freeing me from that villain

Mickey mouse: You're welcome daddy

(All the inhabitants of toontown celebrate the victory of Roger and his friends)

Walt Disney: Today we are going to tell the story of my son Mickey. I created him in 1928 for the short film Steamboat Willy. This short film was the beginning of the Walt Disney Studio. Then I met Rk Maroon and we became good friends until that evil Judge Doom killed him. Without a best friend, I decided to work alone and make more animated films that are a resounding success. But one day he died and Mickey decided to keep my job. Then in 1995 he acquired the rights to the Pixar studio and make 3D films with computers. To this day, they continue to make new films. On this day, my son Mickey revived me. Finally, I met my old friend again, Mr. Rk Maroon .

Rakoon Maroon: Thank you Walt. (Walt Disney and Rk Maroon hug each other.)

(And a few days later, Mike and Rakoon Maroon's studio is shown in Toontown.) A car driven by a tiny man arrives. man and gets out of the car and rings the bell and Mike comes out)

Mike: hello oh an oompa loompa

Oompa loompa lenny: dear mike Teavee I came here for something special although willy wonka believed that you would always be a strict and angry spoiled child addicted to video games because I see that you left video games and focused more on the world of cinema and television and explain to me why you bought the rights to roger rabbit and why you left video games

Mike: ha is that after the tour when I got home my mother punished me for playing violent video games and she showed me cartoons and there I met roger rabbit and I became a fan of roger rabbit and this was what moved me to work in the film industry

Roger: good oh hello little man

Oompa loompa lenny: oh hello roger

Roger: and what are you doing here

Oompa loompa lenny: well I came here to invite mike to the 20th anniversary of the golden ticket contest and one thing mike

Mike: what is

Oompa Loompa Lenny: I'm sorry for everything that happened at the factory and the accidents that happened in the television room

Mike: Yes I know I understand you

Oompa Loompa Lenny: But luckily Charlie has put new safety policies in the factory for fewer accidents and we also replaced the TV in the TV room that just shrank you with a 4k HD flat screen in case someone teleports to the TV by accident they can come out at their normal size as if nothing happened and also I bring you Willy Wonka's old TV that shrank you which is an analog CRT screen as a gift and prize for having changed your personality

Mike: Thank you very much Lenny

Oompa Loompa Lenny: Pack your bags Mike the factory is waiting for you

Roger: Hey can I go with the Oompa Loompa Lenny: Of course not

Roger: Ooh bad

Oompa Loompa Lenny: Luckily I have this, a portal door that takes you to the TV room at Willy Wonka's factory in London or vice versa if someone wants to visit the Maroon Cartoons studio in Toontown and also when the day of the tour comes you will see Mike again and even meet Willy Wonka and Charlie and their friends

Roger: Oh Thank you

Oompa Loompa Lenny: Then let's go Mike

Mike: Ok, okay

Roger: Bye Mike, have a good time
